

An unforgettable musical experience

A NEW chamber music festival is coming to Tamborine Mountain.

The Southern Cross Soloists (SXS), known as 'the stars of Australian chamber music', are proud to present The Soloists' Mountain Showcase on Sunday August 18 at the stunning Shambala Estate.

SXS, operating for 29 years, is Company in Residence at the flagship cultural precinct the Queensland Performing Arts Centre.

Their nationally renowned chamber music festival has been moved to Tamborine Mountain after 20 years of successful operation in Bangalow, NSW, where it received two prestigious APRA AMCOS ART AWARD for Best Regional Event nominations in 2022 and 2023.

In 2025 the 21st edition of The Soloists' Chamber Music Festival will host concerts across three days Friday to Sunday Aug 22-24 in the spectacular Shambala Estate.

To celebrate this relocation, and as a prelude to the 21st edition, SXS are holding a spectacular wintery day of virtuosic talent on Sunday August 18 with two concerts at 11am and 2pm.

Come and soak up the sun in the superb garden surrounds of the Shambala Estate.

Enjoy sumptuous meals by their award winning Chef between concerts, as well as their bar and barista cart.

A day of sublime music awaits you.

The 11am concert features esteemed Finnish pianist Paavali Jumppanen, (Director of the Australian National Academy of Music in Melbourne), who joins forces with acclaimed Polish violin virtuoso Jakub Jakowicz for an enthralling performance featuring emotionally charged and technically demanding masterpieces.

Highlights include Schubert's Fantasie in C major and Beethoven's iconic Kreutzer Sonata.

The 2pm concert features a breathtaking program by multi-ARIA Award-winning guitarist, Slava Grigoryan, with special appearances by operatic emerging artist and SXS vocal scholarship recipient, Jack Bolton, along with SXS Co-Artistic Director, violinist Margaret Blades.

Don't miss this unique opportunity to witness

Paavali Jumppanen and Jakub Jakowicz

the extraordinary skills of Grigoryan, a world-class guitarist up close and personal.
